"Plano Community Unit School District No. 88 aspires to create a positive educational environment for all students to achieve success and experience pride in their schools."

Pride in Our Community and Schools

Plano, Illinois is located on Route 34 approximately 55 miles southwest of Chicago and 15 miles south of I-88 in the Fox River Corridor. Plano is located in Kendall County which was recently cited as the second fastest growing county in the United States. Plano has a current population of over 14,000 residents and growing. There is a variety of residential development currently underway in the Plano community. These developments include single family homes, duplexes, town homes and age restricted communities.

The schools are supported by many local service organizations like the Plano Education Foundation and Community Coalition for Character. Parents in the community have also joined together to form the Plano Parent's Association, Sports Boosters and Music Boosters, which support the students. Plano High is part of the Interstate 8 Conference and offers 16 varsity sports.

Currently the school, which has a population of 616 students, operates on an 8-block system where classes are 80 minutes long and meet on an A/B schedule. The majority of our students continue their education at Waubensee Community College while others choose to attend 4 year institutions such as Northern Illinois University and Eastern Illinois University.
